

Call for Submissions:
Cabinet of Queeriosities V (2026)

The Gallery at Casa is excited to stage the fifth iteration of the Cabinet of Queeriosities, an ongoing collaboration between the Gallery at Casa and independent Curator Leila Armstrong. The exhibition will open during Lethbridge Pride Month and run from June 13– August 21, 2026.

“Cabinet of Queeriosities V” is a celebration of 2SLGBTQIA+ history, identity, culture, and pride. This exhibition is intentionally inclusive and open to any artist or community member, regardless of sexual or gender orientation, provided their work explores some facet of these themes. Previous iterations have displayed work from queer artists & collectors, as well as friends, family and straight allies of the queer community.

Work in all media will be accepted, including video, photography, mixed media, painting, drawing, prints, ceramics, found/altered objects, assemblages, sculptures, and personal collections (Previous collections have included non-explicit beefcake playing cards and beaver ornaments).

Casa is an art centre that serves a broad cross-section of the community. Submissions must be suitable for diverse audiences, including children. Explicit works will not be accepted.

We hope to include work from everyone who submits but reserve the right to decline pieces based on space or appropriateness. A modest honorarium will be paid to all participants.
